If the court is closed unexpectedly on the expiration date, this order will remain in effect until the second day on which the court is open. The Final Extreme Risk Protective Order hearing will be held at _____ Time _____

Hearing dates and places are subject to change, and you should call the Clerk's Office at _____ Telephone Number _____ to be sure you know when and where your hearing(s) will occur. You are responsible for knowing when and where hearings will occur. On request of the respondent, a Final Extreme Risk Protective Order hearing may be rescheduled for a date not later than 30 days after the date on which the hearing was initially schedule.

NOTICE TO ALL PARTIES

- | Please bring all photos, documents and other evidence that you may have with you to court on your hearing date.
- | If you fail to appear at a hearing, the judge may still issue an order or take other action that affects you and you are responsible for obeying any orders issued in your absence. A Final Extreme Risk Protective Order may be entered in your absence and served by first-class mail.
- | After initial service, orders and notices may be served by first-class mail to your last known address.
- | You may consult an attorney regarding any matter related to the order, and that an attorney should be contacted promptly so that the attorney may assist you.
- | If you did not attend the Temporary Extreme Risk Protective Order hearing, call the Clerk's Office to find out the actual date, time, and location of any Final Extreme Risk Protective Order hearings.
- | Communicating with the court. Any communication you wish to have with the court about this case must be filed in writing at the Clerk's Office during business hours. Do not attempt to contact a commissioner or judge directly.
- | You are responsible for advising the Clerk's Office in writing, of your current address and telephone number and of any changes in either. The Post Office will not forward court mail to you. Each party may be represented by an attorney at all stages. You are not required to have an attorney. To obtain a Final Extreme Risk Protective Order, the judge must find clear and convincing evidence that the respondent poses a danger of causing personal injury to the respondent, the petitioner, or another by possessing a firearm. The Rules of Evidence apply to your hearing. If the petitioner cannot afford a private attorney, there are support agencies that may be able to help you. Due to the emergency nature of the hearing, the hearing may be held even if a party requests more time to obtain an attorney.

DURATION OF ORDERS

- | Interim Extreme Risk Protective Orders usually last until the Temporary Extreme Risk Protective Order hearing, but not beyond the second business day after issue unless the court is closed for unforeseen circumstances.
- | Temporary Extreme Risk Protective Orders last not more than seven (7) days after the service of the order. The judge may extend as needed, but not beyond six (6) months.
- | Final Extreme Risk Protective Orders may remain in effect for as long as one (1) year. Additionally: The court for good cause may extend the term of the Final Extreme Risk Protective Order for an additional six (6) months after a further hearing.

PROCESS FOR RECLAIMING FIREARMS AND AMMUNITION ON EXPIRATION OR TERMINATION OF ORDER

On expiration or termination of the order, a law enforcement agency that holds any firearm or ammunition surrendered or seized shall notify you that you may request return of the firearm or ammunition. The law enforcement agency shall return a firearm or ammunition to you only after the agency verifies that you are not otherwise prohibited from possessing the firearm or ammunition. On your request to return all firearms and ammunition belonging to you, if authorized to be returned to you, the law enforcement agency shall return no later than:

- 14 days after the expiration of an Interim or Temporary Extreme Risk Protection Order;
- 14 days after a court terminates a Final Extreme Risk Protective Order; or
- 48 hours after the expiration of a Final Extreme Risk Protective Order.

To request a foreign language interpreter or a reasonable accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act, please contact the court immediately.

Possession and use of cell phones and other electronic devices may be limited or prohibited in designated areas of the court facility.

EXTREME RISK PROTECTIVE ORDER NOTICE
Surrender of Firearm(s) / Ammunition to Law Enforcement and Prohibition From Purchasing or Possessing Firearm(s) / Ammunition

TO: Extreme Risk Protective Order Respondent

An Extreme Risk Protective Order (ERPO) has been entered against you by a judicial officer ordering you as the respondent to surrender to law enforcement authorities any firearm and ammunition in your possession. You are prohibited from possessing or purchasing any firearm or ammunition for the duration of the Extreme Risk Protective Order.

You may retake possession of the firearm(s) and ammunition at the termination or expiration of the Extreme Risk Protective Order unless: (1) the order is extended; or (2) you are otherwise not legally entitled to own or possess the firearm(s) and ammunition.

Process for Surrendering Firearm(s) and Ammunition:

If a law enforcement officer is serving you personally with the Extreme Risk Protective Order, you must immediately surrender all firearms and ammunition to the officer.

If you have received this order by mail, you must contact the law enforcement agency designated in the order and arrange for the immediate surrender of all firearms and ammunition in your possession. You may transport a firearm to surrender it, if you take the following steps:

- Notify the law enforcement unit, barracks, or station that the firearm is being transported in accordance with the Extreme Risk Protective Order;
- Make sure the firearm is unloaded;
- Transport the firearm directly to the law enforcement unit, barracks, or station; and
- Carry a copy of the Extreme Risk Protective Order that requires the surrender of any firearm and ammunition when transporting the firearm(s) and ammunition to the appropriate authorities.

You must comply with the law enforcement agency's delivery instructions. Surrender each firearm and ammunition IMMEDIATELY to the designated law enforcement agency for the county or city where the Extreme Risk Protective Order was issued. Contact information for the designated law enforcement agency is included with this notice.

Law enforcement will take possession of all firearms and ammunition. Law enforcement will provide you with a receipt identifying the make, model, and serial number for all firearms and ammunition that have been surrendered or seized. Law enforcement will transport and store any firearm surrendered or seized in a protective case, if one is available, and in a manner intended to prevent damage to the firearm during the time the order is in effect.

Process for Reclaiming Firearms and Ammunition on Expiration or Termination of Order:

On expiration or termination of the order, a law enforcement agency that holds any firearm or ammunition surrendered or seized shall notify you that you may request return of the firearm or ammunition. The law enforcement agency shall return a firearm or ammunition to you only after the agency verifies that you are not otherwise prohibited from possessing the firearm or ammunition. On your request to return all firearms and ammunition belonging to you, if authorized to be returned to you, the law enforcement agency shall return the items no later than:

- 14 days after the expiration of an Interim or Temporary Extreme Risk Protective Order;
- 14 days after a court terminates a Final Extreme Risk Protective Order; or
- 48 hours after the expiration of a Final Extreme Risk Protective Order.

FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THESE PROVISIONS MAY RESULT IN YOUR ARREST, CRIMINAL PROSECUTION, IMPRISONMENT AND/OR FINE, A FINDING OF CONTEMPT, AND/OR FORFEITURE OF FIREARMS.
